

COUNCILMAN MARK CUTHBERTSON, SUPERVISOR FRANK PETRONE
AND THE TOWN OF HUNTINGTON PRESENT

FAMILY EARTH DAY EXPO

Saturday, April 23rd
9:00am to 1:00 pm

Town Hall, 100 Main Street, Huntington

Discover How Your Family Can Go Green!

The Town of Huntington and COVANTA are partnering once again to host three family fun Earth Day events:

Medicine Disposal

Residents will have the ability to safely dispose of medicines, an effort co-sponsored by the Citizens Campaign for the Environment.

E-Cycling

Provides residents and businesses the opportunity to dispose of obsolete e-waste items such as cell phones, pagers, radios, stereos, computers, laptops, fax machines and televisions –sponsored by COVANTA!

The Green Showcase

Provides residents and businesses the opportunity to dispose of obsolete e-waste items such as cell phones, pagers, radios, stereos, computers, laptops, fax machines and televisions –sponsored by COVANTA!

Plastic Grocery Bag Recycling

The first 200 residents to trade in a plastic grocery bag will receive a free ecofriendly tote bag, compliments of Southdown Marketplace.

Touch A Truck Event

Back by popular demand, this provides a fun opportunity for kids of all ages to climb on, touch and learn about the functionality and safety aspects of a variety of trucks that will be on display.

Identity Theft Prevention

Bring your old unwanted outdated documents for on-site shredding and disposal. (Please note there will be a three banker-box size limit per person.)

Rainwater Barrel Raffle

Cooperative Extension

Enter to win a free rainwater barrel – sponsored by Cornell Cooperative Extension.
